QUICK SURVEY RESULTS Videos of College Board Meetings

September 1, 2022

A total of 30 colleges/districts responded to ICCTA's Quick Survey on VIDEOS OF COLLEGE BOARD MEETINGS.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ❖ Most colleges do not record their board meetings on video – or only do so when using Zoom software.
- ❖ Of those colleges that do record board meetings on video, two thirds post the videos online (mainly on the college website).
- ❖ Only two colleges post their board meeting videos on YouTube.

1. DO YOU RECORD COLLEGE BOARD MEETINGS ON VIDEO?

COLLEGE WEBSITE -- 6

DuPage, Highland, Joliet, McHenry, Prairie State, Southwestern

YOUTUBE -- 2

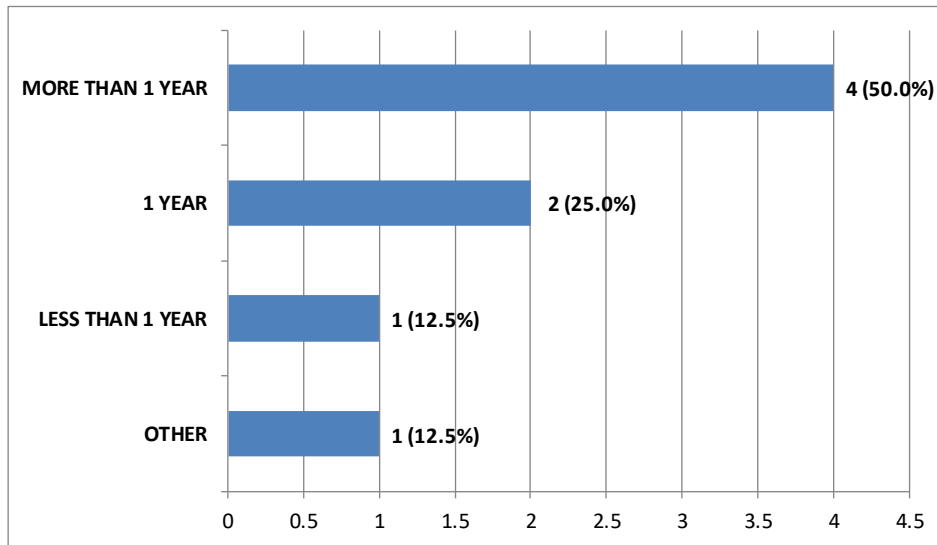

Lewis and Clark: YouTube

Lake County: Board meetings are live-streamed. Live-stream recordings are in YouTube and linked to the board minutes on the college website.

OTHER -- 1

Oakton: They are posted in an internal platform, but links are shared if people request them.

4. HOW LONG DO YOU KEEP THE VIDEO RECORDINGS OF COLLEGE BOARD MEETINGS POSTED?

LESS THAN ONE YEAR -- 1

Southwestern: 120 days

ONE YEAR -- 2

Joliet, Lewis and Clark

MORE THAN ONE YEAR -- 4

DuPage: Since 2008

Lake County: This practice began at the start of COVID in 2020. All meetings since that time are available.

Highland: Currently, they are posted as long as the agendas and minutes are available on the website.

Prairie State: Currently, there is no end date.

OTHER -- 1

Oakton: We don't have a set time.

5. ADDITIONAL COMMENTS:

DuPage: Some of the videos remain posted as part of a lawsuit and we are unable to destroy (from 2015 onward).

Rock Valley: The RVC Board has been meeting virtually via Zoom, and we retain the video only for our records.

Logan: The video recordings are not posted and only used to allow individuals to view the meeting in real-time.
